Wanted: Ideas, Presenters and Speakers

What would you like to learn about? What types of programs would you come to? Do you or someone you know have a specialty to share with the community? Did you take a fabulous trip recently and have pictures and memories to share?

We continually search for ideas and appreciate your input. We have learned more about Viet Nam, Jazz, Leonardo Da Vinci, and Reiki. Many of us can now knit a scarf for the winter or make a dazzling bracelet for that special night out! With your assistance we can continue to offer programs that excite, educate and entertain.

Send ideas and suggestions to Denise at weekspl@comcast.net or call the Library at 436-8548.

Letter from the Trustee Co-Chairs

Mike Sullivan has been the Director of the Weeks Public Library for almost five years, and his departure on August 15 was surprisingly bittersweet. The surprise, of course, was the sweetness: Mike has been extraordinarily good to and for this town, and we expected, accordingly, to feel unadulterated sadness in saying good-by. Instead, we find ourselves very excited and optimistic about both of our futures - his because of all his talents and plans, ours because of newly energized support from our Friends.

Thank you, Mike, for all you have done for us, especially hiring Denise Grimse, now our Acting Director. You have been such a strong leader that you have left the library in very good hands and with a very promising future. We shall miss you, but we will not fall apart without you. "Luck" has been defined as "preparation meeting opportunity," and in that sense we are quite confident you don't need our good wishes, but we offer them anyway. Good luck, Mike! And see you soon.

– Kate White and Adele Wick
