A Visit with Queen Victoria
Sponsored by the New Hampshire Humanities Council
Hosted by the Friends of the Library
Tuesday, March 25
6:30pm

In 1837, teenaged Victoria ascended to the British throne, untrained and innocent. Using Queen Victoria's diary and letters, this program reveals the personal details of a powerful yet humane woman, who took seriously her role as monarch in a time of great expansion. Sally Mummey performs this living history in proper 19th Century clothing resplendent with Royal Orders.
