Today's libraries are more about doing than borrowing - more about connecting than simply plugging in. April 10-16 is National Library Week. Visit Weeks Public Library.

Classic Movie Night
Come Back, Little Sheba
 © Paramount Pictures
 Monday, April 18
 6:00 pm

The film is a fascinating and sometimes funny study of an unhappy marriage made unhappier by the arrival of a sexy stranger. Young Marie (Terry Moore) rents a room from Lola (Shirley Booth), a tiresome creature who never stops talking, especially about the "imminent" return of her runaway dog Sheba. Doc (Burt Lancaster) is having enough trouble staying away from the bottle and resigning himself to his marriage without the curvaceous Marie arousing his baser instincts. The characters interact with gloomy consequences, in the typical kitchen-sink-realism style of Inge's Fifties plays, although a tacked-on happy ending, common to Fifties movie melodramas, pretends otherwise. This 1952 film is not rated and runs 99 minutes. Local film buff, Glenn Bergeron will introduce the film. Popcorn and soda served.

A Mt. Kilimanjaro Tour
Wednesday, April 27
 6:30 pm

Tanzania is an East African country known for Mt. Kilimanjaro, the tallest free-standing mountain in the world, and its vast wilderness areas including the plains of Serengeti National Park and Ngorongoro Conservation area, home to the world's largest animal migration. Please join Greenland resident, Eve Fralick, as she takes us through a photo-journal of her travels and hike up Mt. Kilimanjaro.
